

A MIRACLE OF TRANSPLANTATION

Becky Bailey and her husband Darren with their new baby Jessica Harriet. She was born by C-section on the 4th February 2014 weighing 8lb 1oz. She is absolutely beautiful and they both feel very blessed. Mother and baby were home in a few days and doing really well. Becky went into Addenbrooke's to have the baby on the 18th anniversary of her liver transplant and gave birth to her daughter

18 years and 2 days after that gift which, as she says, is truly amazing. She says that her donor and her family, as always, are forever in their thoughts. Becky adds: "The care I have had from the liver team and obstetrics team at Addenbrooke's was amazing. They really did look after me well throughout the pregnancy and we cannot thank them enough. It sometimes meant several trips a week on the A14 but it has all been worth it". She goes on to say that the whole experience has been a really positive one and shows others what's possible after transplant.
